

Good Afternoon,

This month's big question is "Why are we changing?" As Hamilton prepares for the future, we are moving away from Colleague, which is reaching its end-of-life. To ensure Hamilton remains at the forefront of technology and security, we are implementing Workday's student functionality to create a unified, future-ready experience.

Making the Connection: Why Are We Changing?

Why are we moving to the Student Information System (SIS) in Workday? It comes down to three focus areas:

- Empowered Community: Providing students, faculty, and staff with a modern, intuitive platform that offers better control and transparency over academic data.
- User Experience & Efficiency: Replacing paper forms and manual entry with automated workflows to reduce administrative burden and simplify daily tasks.
- Data Access & Reliability: Moving to a single, secure system of record that provides accurate, real-time information for confident decision-making.
